In addition to rest rooms and other conveniences for women and children, the building contains many exhibits and educational features, among which are the Baby Health Contest, Women's County-Wide Project and Hobby Exhibits by Farm Bureau Women, and a room set aside for daily demonstrations in domestic science; also a large auditorium in which programs of interest to women are given daily.

Emergency Hospital

CENTENNIAL FEATURES IOWA TERRITORIAL CENTENNIAL STATE FAIR

Towns and cities throughout Iowa, counties, historical groups, as well as countless civic organizations have been turning back the pages of time this year, and harkening back to the Iowa of the Wisconsin territory which in 1838 became the Territory of Iowa.

As local celebrations have been held during the early spring and summer, the Iowa State Fair Board has centered its attention upon the building of a greater exposition—the TERRITORIAL CENTENNIAL STATE FAIR AND EXPOSITION—the climaxing event of the Iowa celebration in observance of 100 years of progress in its many, many fields of endeavor.

No where will Iowans and the thousands of visitors to Iowa find the progress of the state from territory to statehood, and through to present day leadership in numerous fields, so happily in evidence.

From the massive block-house entrance forming the main entrance on Grand Avenue, to the camp-site on the hill, and evidenced in exhibits in virtually every building and tent on the grounds, the Centennial theme predominates.

We particularly direct State Fair visitors to the Centennial exhibit tent, located north of the International Harvester building near the Walnut Street entrance. This is one of the largest exhibit tents ever provided the Iowa State Fair, with a central area 40x240 feet.

In this huge area, the history of farm implements—the evolution of the plow, the harvester, the thresher, and the farm tractor, will be presented.

The International Harvester Company offers the history of the grain harvester covering a period of more than 100 years—complete from sickle to modern combine.

The John Deere Company has provided a wonderful collection of plows, not only from this country but including ancient implements of many foreign countries, some of which date back more than 200 years.

The J. I. Case Company shows visitors the ancient methods of threshing grain by means of the back bending flail and traces progress in this field down to the modern thresher and combine.

The Oliver Farm Equipment Company, formerly the Hart-Parr Company of Charles City, Iowa, has assembled 15 farm tractors showing the progress in this field during the past 40 years. In this exhibit is the third farm tractor that the Hart-Parr Company built.

TRANSPORTATION EXHIBIT

Surrounding the presentation of the HISTORY OF FARM IMPLEMENTS, is a huge transportation exhibit comprising all of the space next to the outside wall of the Centennial Exhibit tent.

Virtually every mode of travel of the past 200 years is included in this exhibit, which is the result of a search carried on by the State Fair Board covering the past eight months.

The history of transportation starts with the ancient Indian trovois or Indian pony and pole, and is followed by the ox drawn wagons, carts, and the old Conestoga wagon, which was drawn by oxen.

This is followed by a complete collection of horse drawn vehicles including all types of rigs, surreys, and even a bone-breaker bike. The early days of "hoss racin'" have their place in this exhibit with several ancient high wheeler sulkeys shown.

The exhibit also features the showing of 30 ancient early-day automobiles with the oldest dating back to 1896, and the youngest of only 1910 vintage.

As a special Centennial feature, an old twelve horse-power threshing machine is presented in a special exhibition in actual operation west of the street running from Grand Avenue to the Walnut Street gate. This threshing machine was manufactured in 1872. It will be in actual operation from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. daily. More than 20 loads of bundles will be threshed during the fair by a special crew of 12 men.

The Centennial Exhibit Room, under the east end of the grandstand and Educational Building, houses the exhibits known as FLOWER ROOMS. Showing the changes which have taken place in flower raising during the past 100 years is lower.

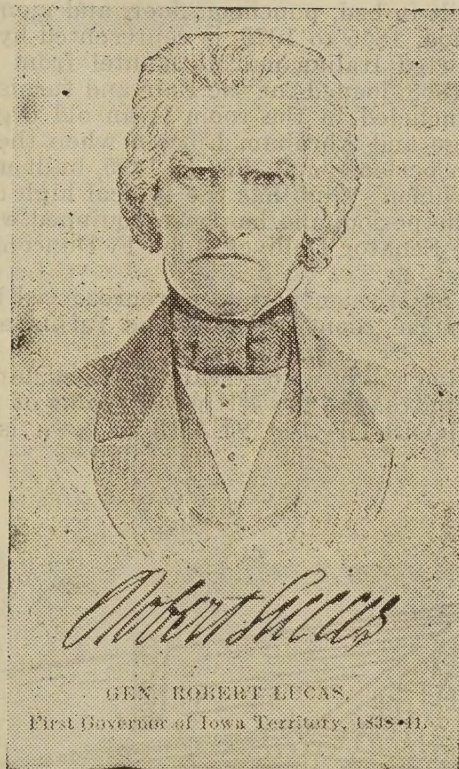

An old log cabin has been erected in the central wing as the Territorial room representative of the period from 1838 to 1846. The Iowa State Club of Burlington has planned this feature. Antiquarian furnishings include an old rock fireplace, a

A modern room scheme will furnish WOMEN'S FAIR.

GEN. ROBERT LUCAS.

First Governor of Iowa Territory, 1838-41.

Iowa's territorial governor, John Lucas, came to Iowa from Ohio in 1838 to take charge of Iowa affairs and organize the state. Iowa pays its respect to his memory with the Centennial State Fair.

As a special Centennial feature, an old twelve horse-power threshing machine is presented in a special exhibition in actual operation west of the street running from Grand Avenue to the Walnut Street gate. This threshing machine was manufactured in 1872. It will be in actual operation four times daily. More than 20 loads of bundles will be threshed during the Fair by a special crew of 12 men.

The Centennial Exhibit Room, under the east end of the grandstand and Educational Building, houses five authentic rooms—PIONEER ROOMS—showing the changes which have taken place in home furnishings during the past 100 years in Iowa.

An old log cabin has been erected in the central area as the Territorial room representative of the period from 1838 to 1855. The Iowa Study Club of Burlington has planned this feature. Authentic furnishings include an old rock fireplace, built-in bed, puncheon floor, and pioneer cooking utensils.

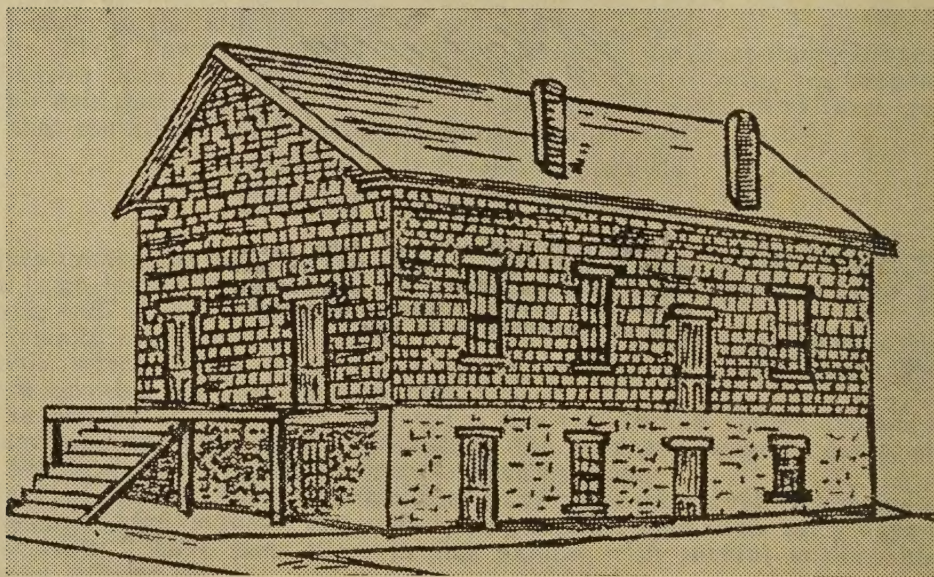

The Civil War period, 1855 to 1870, is represented by the original walnut wood work and imported Italian marble mantel from the Bonnifield home in Ottumwa built in 1868, loaned for the Fair and furnished by the Women's Club of Ottumwa. Included in the room is an old organ, and the hymnal used by Ann Rutledge and Abraham Lincoln when they were sweethearts.

The Reconstruction period room, 1870 to 1895, built under the supervision of the Fort Dodge Women's Club has the typical high ceiling, double doors, and bay window of the period, and has been equipped with furnishings from the homes of the late Senator Dolliver, John F. Duncombe, and S. T. Meserve, and others.

The New Century or Mission period, is represented by the Morris chairs and Mission seats in the room designed and furnished by the Ida Grove Women's Club.

A modernistic room of today with streamline furnishings and modern color scheme will furnish contrast to the setting of rooms of pioneer Iowa.

feature of this great room which takes visitors back into the days of pioneer Iowa. A mammoth show case, 200 feet in length, the front of which is in plate glass, houses an exhibit of some 35 historical gowns. One of these gowns has been loaned by Mrs. Herbert Hoover, another by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, as well as gowns worn by a number of wives of our former governors. Iowa history is evidenced by gowns of Iowa's first girl heroine, Kate Shelley, and by a dress worn by the late Abbie Gardner Sharp, survivor of the Spirit Lake Massacre.

Numerous other Centennial features will interest State Fair visitors. These will include the Old Fashioned Relic show featuring such items as a hand corn planter, old cooking utensils, spinning wheel, the Centennial Stamp and Coin Show, etc. This exhibit is in the Educational Building, west end, second floor.

We call attention to Iowa's biggest mural, "The History of Agriculture" designed and being painted by Artists Dan Rhodes of Fort Dodge and Howard Johnson, Cedar Rapids, on the balcony of the Agricultural Building depicting the story of agricultural progress from hand sowing of grain down to the day of the modern machinery.

Livestock "then and now," showing changes in types just inside main entrance to cattle barn are other Centennial features.

More than 1,000 people are the actors in the huge centennial pageant "Cavalcade of Iowa," presented two nights, August 24 and 25 in front of the grandstand.

While Iowa contrasts pioneer days of 1838 with today, fair visitors can well note the great strides made by the Iowa State Fair from 1854, the first state fair grounds at Fairfield, down to the present day as shown in the airplane view. The fair of 1854 has a small entrance, no permanent buildings outside of a long display shed, and a show ring for equestrian classes.

Frame buildings made their appearance with the fairgrounds of 1885. Note the Exposition building on the hill which is one of the few remaining buildings of the 1885 period.

Contrast those with the 1937 airplane view showing the large grandstand, and other modern buildings which make the Iowa State Fair plant of today one of the finest in the nation.

This old Deadwood, South Dakota, stage coach was originally used in Iowa, and comes back home to be a feature of the History of Transportation which will be found in the Centennial Exhibit Tent. Vehicles of all types from the Indian pony with pole, down to the 1910 automobiles comprise this great exhibit showing 100 years of progress in transportation since the founding of the Iowa territory.

This old locomotive was one of the super power engines of the early 1880's, which is among the exhibits of the Centennial State Fair featuring numerous other locomotives and coaches of pioneer days. The centennial exhibit of early transportation in Iowa includes locomotives dating back to 1848, exhibited by the Rock Island, Burlington, Northwestern and other railroads that pioneered in Iowa. In contrast, the exhibit also includes modern streamline railroad equipment of the latest design.

What Will We Use for Money?

When the good wife and kiddies suggested coming to the Fair, you, in a teasing tone of voice, probably said, "Yes, but WHAT SHALL WE USE FOR MONEY?" That sounded smart and you all had a good laugh—but you are here—however, some of these days if your widow and orphans say, "WHAT WILL WE USE FOR MONEY?" it won't be so funny. A Life Insurance Trust with the AETNA, whether it's $5000 or a quarter of a million, there will always be Fairs, Christmases and Birthdays—and happy ones.

6 Big Reasons for DEMPSTER No. 12 Annu-Oiled Windmill...

1. MAIN SHAFT ASSEMBLY

which will never wear out. Timken Bearings absorb the thrust and wear of the shaft. The automatic take-up spring takes up any wear in the bearings.

2. CROSS HEAD AND GEARS

Large, machine-cut equalizing gears work independently of each other on a high-carbon steel bearing, constantly oiled. Gears run in an oil bath. Each gear carries its full part of the load, preventing undue strain and breakage.

3. BALL-BEARING TURNTABLE

allows quick response to the smallest breeze. Ball races are semi-steel, especially hardened, and finished smooth to permit ball to roll freely. Enough balls are used to withstand five times the load they carry.

4. SCIENTIFICALLY DESIGNED WHEEL

has fewest possible parts. Light, strong, powerful. Sensitive to the slightest breeze; stands up under the hardest wind. Fans securely fastened to circles; to keep proper curvature and position.

5. INTERNAL EXPANDING BRAKE

has heavy cast shoe with special steel brake lining—pivoted on substantial supporting lug cast integral in the frame. Combines best features of both the steel band and cast shoe brake.

6. TIMKEN TAPERED BEARINGS

add years of life to the Dempster Mill. Wear is taken off the shaft and put onto these bearings. Practically no wearing effect on Timken Bearings, when kept constantly oiled as in this Mill.

A These six features, plus an engine of great simplicity which assures satisfactory operation for years to come, make the Dempster No. 12 Annu-Oiled Windmill the outstanding leader of them all. That's why farmers throughout the Middle West prefer the Dempster.

SAVE YOUR CORN the OLIVER WAY

Pick up and husk your corn the Oliver way this year. Sit on the comfortable seat of an Oliver Row Crop "70" Tractor and take it easy while your Oliver Corn Master picks, husks and loads your corn into the wagon at the rate of 12 to 20 acres per day.

The Oliver Corn Master saves you money—makes you money—because it does a clean job from field to wagon, at a fast clip, that is easy on man and tractor.

The Oliver Row Crop "70" is the most modern 2-plow tractor built. It has all the features that help get farm work done easier, faster, better—a modern 6-cylinder high-compression engine, self starter, variable speed governor control, electric lights, power lift for mounted implements, rubber tires or the famous Tip Toe wheels, and many others.

See the Oliver Corn Master, Row Crop "70", 35-year old Hart-Parr Tractor No. 3 and the display of other modern tractors and farm implements at the Oliver exhibit on the fair grounds.

WALLACES' FARMER AND Iowa Homestead

extends to state fair visitors a cordial invitation to visit its headquarters in the east end of Varied Industries Building and to visit its large and attractive plant at 19th Street and Grand Avenue.

We like to get better acquainted with our farm friends and to confer with them about matters of mutual interest. We like also to meet manufacturers and their representatives on the occasion of their visit to the state fair.

Our headquarters in Varied Industries Building are maintained from 8:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M. Our plant at 19th Street and Grand Avenue, where nearly 200 people are employed, is open for inspection by visitors from 9:00 A. M. to 4:00 P. M. It is one of the largest and most complete printing establishments in the West, where you can see the largest farm paper printing press in the world. It is a real sight.

Wallaces' Farmer and Iowa Homestead reaches approximately 95 per cent of the farm homes in Iowa. It studies the needs of every member of the farm family and is a welcome visitor to all.

Come in and get acquainted with us. We are friendly people and like to meet our friends on the farm as well as our friends in the manufacturing business who are patrons of our advertising columns. If there are any questions you wish to ask with regard to farm crops and livestock or with regard to Iowa and its agricultural resources, we have the information available. By all means, come in and get acquainted.
